Professor's Instructions

- 1. This is a LIMITED OPEN BOOK EXAMINATION. You may use the course materials, handouts distributed during the course, or any notes or outlines that you have participated in creating.
- 2. There are two questions to this exam. Both questions are equally weighted, so you should allocate approximately sixty (60) minutes for each question.

Good luck and have a Happy Holiday season!

Question One (60 minutes)

1. Despite differences between the common law tradition and the civil law tradition, what do those two traditions share in their understanding of "law" that are not shared by many "non-western" legal systems?

Question Two (60 minutes)

2. Describe at least two different aspects of the common law—the perception of which before starting law school was different than your current understanding. Explain the implicit assumption(s) that underlay your initial impression and how a comparative, historical, cultural or jurisprudential perspective has produced a different point of view.

Cast your answer in the form of a talk you will be giving to incoming law students.
