NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is no to be "used for any purpose other that private study, scholarship, or research." If the user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Question

Please answer Problem 23 at page 978 of the course text, Handler, Pitofsky, Goldschmid and Wood, TRADE REGULATION (Fourth Edition). The problem is entitled "The BZT Three-Way Venture." You may use any of the materials covered over the semester to answer the question. In addition, you should read pp. 968 –78.

Please follow the memo format used throughout the semester. You should take the position of the DOJ. As a DOJ lawyer, do you agree with the legal advice provided by the Breakers' attorneys to the effect that the venture is permissible under antitrust laws? If you disagree with the advice, are there any alternatives that the DOJ would find less objectionable?
