NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is no to be "used for any purpose other that private study, scholarship, or research." If the user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

FINAL EXAM

YOU MAY USE NOTES AND LAP TOP COMPUTERS AS WELL AS COPIES FROM OTHER REFERENCE WORKS.

You may answer the questions in three separate essays or integrate your responses into one or two essays.

1. Outline an integrated model of current psychological thought about personality structure and functioning with a focus on those elements most useful to a practicing lawyer. It can be, but need not be, the one presented in class.
2. Review the psychological techniques and methods with which a lawyer should be most familiar. Describe which technique gives you what evidence.
3. Using the area of legal consideration you have chosen to focus on in this class (e.g. insanity, ICWA, adoption, psychological damages, etc.), outline the psychological concepts and methods that relate.

TIPS

I like short sentences.

I understand better when you give me examples.

If you don't take off for my spelling, I won't take off for yours.
