Dean's Announcements.

- Reminder of the retirement party for John Feldman on Thursday afternoon. The Dean conveyed his appreciation of John's dedication to the Mediation Programs at the law school. He also reported that John did not qualify for emeritus standing but will be given the title of Lecturer III retired.
- Advised faculty that Peter Winograd was still accepting donations for staff gifts.
- Margot Pollens (voted a back-up offer for the National Resources faculty position) had accepted a position at Pace Law School.

Dean Herring turned the meeting over to Prof. Aliza Organick as Chairperson of the Faculty Appointments Committee. Prof. Organick applauded Ramona Garcia and Trish Otero for their assistance in managing the campus visits and thanked the faculty for their participation in the process. The committee interviewed four (4) candidates on campus for the Clinical Law faculty position:

- Nicole Hallet
- Daria Fisher Page
- Jennifer Sperling
- John Whitlow

Prof. Organick and other members of the Appointments Committee presented each of the candidates, focusing on their references, teaching evaluations and scholarship. Dean Herring provided additional information about the candidates regarding areas of interest in regards to teaching courses outside the clinic.

The meeting was then opened for discussion. A qualifying vote and preferential votes were taken and recorded.

Based on the results of the voting, a motion was made and seconded to offer John Whitlow the position. The motion passed by the required 60%.

Another motion was made and seconded to offer Daria Fisher Page the position should John Whitlow refuse the offer. The motion passed.

A motion was made and seconded to designate Jennifer Sperling as the second back-up candidate. The motion passed.

A final motion was made and seconded to designate Nicole Hallet as the third back-up candidate. The motion passed.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:48 p.m.
