

School of Law
Faculty Meeting
April 14, 1975
4:00 p.m., Conference Room

MINUTES

Present: Adler, Blackwell, Desiderio, Ellis, Evans, Flickinger, Goldberg, Hart, MacPherson, Martinez, Minzner, Muir, Norwood, Ragsdale, Reynoso, Romero, Sanchez, Simson, Teitelbaum, Utton, Valdespino, Walden

The meeting was called to order by Dean Hart; attention was given to the following:

1. Professor Walden spoke on the report of the Subcommittee on the Buckley Amendment. Discussion followed. Faculty action on the Statement of Policy was tabled.
2. The study of Grade Comparisons of Courses with Alternative Examination Dates was distributed. Professor Evans led the discussion.
3. John Draper was chosen to receive the set of New Mexico Statutes awarded by the New Mexico Bar Foundation to the Outstanding Senior. Four students were chosen as the highest-ranking students in the senior class for gift certificates toward books published by Allen Smith Company: William Darling, William Page, Catherine Goldberg, and John Draper.

The Faculty Award, limited to third year students, will be given to both Harold Lavender and David Williams.

Other awards, which are also to be presented at the Awards Banquet, are being determined by Dean Hart, the Clinical Program professors, and by predetermined criteria.

4. Dean Hart announced that Ruth Kovnat is joining the faculty next fall.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Louise R. Camp
Secretary
