The meeting was called to order by Dean Hart. Minutes of the meetings of November 14 and 21, 1977, were approved.

Dean Hart announced openings at the National Science Foundation and Hofstra University School of Law, as well as available tuition scholarships at Columbia University.

Attention was then given to the following:

1. Regarding the Citizens Communications Center, Washington, D.C., it was moved that UNM students be allowed to participate in a program giving one semester's credit for working under the supervision of the Center. Motion carried.
2. A motion that our representative to the AALS House of Delegates should exercise her best judgment in voting on the adoption of an amendment to the AALS by-laws as to the procedures and sanctions for those schools which do not meet standards carried.

Dean Hart spoke briefly on the following matters:

1. Reinspection of the law school by AALS/ABA.
2. Dedication of the new wing.
3. Purchase of furniture for the new wing.
4. New phone system.
5. System 6, the new word processor.
6. Recommendations for faculty promotions.
7. Deadline for grades.
8. New faculty contracts.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
