Proclamation

by

Jerry Apodaca

Governor

State of New Mexico
Santa Fe, New Mexico

WHEREAS, since 1967, the American Indian Law Center at the University of New Mexico School of Law has provided significant service to the State of New Mexico and to the nation in legal education, training, and research in the area of Indian law and policy; and

WHEREAS, in keeping with the policy of Indian self-determination and respect for the integrity of Indian societies, the American Indian Law Center has become a non-profit, Indian-controlled organization with an identity separate from the University of New Mexico School of Law, but maintaining a close working relationship; and

WHEREAS, the State of New Mexico is proud of the distinguished record of the American Indian Law Center, Inc., and the credit it has brought to the state and its University, and is proud that the establishment of a distinct Indian-controlled organization is evidence of the cooperation and mutual respect which represents the finest traditions of Indian-non-Indian relations in New Mexico;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JERRY APODACA, Governor of the State of New Mexico, do hereby proclaim Saturday, October 7, 1978, as:

"AMERICAN INDIAN LAW CENTER DAY"

in New Mexico, and urge all citizens of our state to recognize the many benefits we have received from the American Indian Law Center and from those who make it work.
