

Faculty Meeting
UNM School of Law
Conference Room, Noon
December 4, 1978

MINUTES

Present: Deloria, Desiderio, J. Ellis, W. Ellis, Flickinger, Goldberg, Gonzales, Hart, Kovnat, MacPherson, Minzner, Norwood, Occhialino, Parnall, Schwartz, Simson, Stelzner, Teitelbaum, Winograd; Student Representative Dumas

The meeting was called to order by Dean Hart, and minutes of the meeting of November 20, 1978, were approved.

A motion to give Professor Minzner discretion to vote at the AALS Conference carried.

Dean Hart made announcements of deanship and faculty searches at other law schools.

Professor Stelzner reported that twenty candidates have submitted applications for our law school deanship.

Professor Occhialino spoke regarding the Self-Evaluation Committee, which was appointed by Dean Hart to prepare a report for the ABA/AALS accreditation inspection on January 29, 30, 31, 1979. This report is composed of three parts:

1. A description of the operation of the law school which incorporates in-put from surveys sought from faculty, students, practicing attorneys and law school staff.
2. A financial report prepared by Professor Desiderio of finances and budget.
3. Recommendations for the future.

Part 1 and part of Part 3 were distributed by Professor Minzner. Discussion was postponed until Wednesday, December 6, at noon, in order that Part 1 could be read.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Louise R. Camp
