The meeting was called to order by Dean Desiderio; minutes of the meeting of August 27, 1979, were approved.

The following students were certified as having completed all requirements for graduation: Lynn Billings and Victor Ruybalid

Dean Desiderio reminded the faculty regarding the United Fund drive and the new 55-minute class hour. Also, he announced that the University of Kansas School of Law and the University of Akron Law Center are seeking new deans, and that the University of Texas has announced a new Health Science Program for which a director is needed.
