MINUTES

Present: Desiderio, DuMars, J. Ellis, W. Ellis, Fink, Gonzales, Hart, Henry, Hermann, Kovnat, MacPherson, Minzner, Muir, Norwood, Occhialino, Romero, Schwartz, Senescu, Simson, Stelzner, Teitelbaum, Utton, Weihofen, Winograd; Student Representatives Carabajal, Otten, Valdez.

Dean Desiderio called the meeting to order; minutes of the meeting of February 4, 1980, were approved.

The Dean reported that, after the last meeting, Ms. Camp polled the faculty and obtained approval (see attached minutes) to certify that the following students had completed degree requirements as of December 1979:

Patricia Ann Gandert
Margaret Leidler
Ben Allan Longwill
Clare Elizabeth Mancini
Richard Lawrence Puglisi
Frank Lewis Spring
Angela Juzang (as of August 1979)

The faculty ratified this action.

The following announcements were made:

- The University of Florida College of Law and the University of Puget Sound School of Law are seeking deans.
- A National Law Teachers Conference on Testing and Grading will be held March 29-30 at Loyola Law School, Los Angeles. Faculty members interested in attending should see the Dean.
- Faculty research funds will be available during the summer of 1980; those interested in obtaining support should discuss their projects with the Dean soon. It is expected that recipients will spend full time on research. There may also be a limited amount of money available to provide salaries for student assistants who are ineligible for Work-Study.

Faculty Meeting
