Faculty Meeting
February 21, 1983
Conference Room
4:00 p.m.

MINUTES

Present: Barela, Browde, Desiderio, J. Ellis, Fink, Flickinger, Gonzales, Hart, Hermann, Johnson, Martinez, Minzner, Muir, Occhialino, Roll, Schwartz, Simson, Taylor, Teitelbaum, Utton, Winograd; Students Baber, Cline, Colon, Martinez; Camp

The meeting was called to order by Dean Desiderio; minutes of the meetings of January 24 and 31, 1983, were approved.

Dean announced that the water in the building will be turned off on Wednesday afternoon.

Flickinger was reelected as Law School representative to the Faculty Senate.

Winograd stressed that it is critical that all grades for the fall semester be submitted no later than March 11. Students need to have their records complete for placement purposes; eligibility for some honors and awards may be affected by late grades. Reminders will be placed in faculty boxes within a few days.

Note

The Report of the Curriculum Committee was re-distributed. Minzner thanked faculty members and students on this committee. Discussion of the Report followed. Faculty unanimously adopted the Report of the Curriculum Committee, subject to changes which the Committee feels necessary.

A motion to limit Moot Court to second year students was discussed; vote on this issue was postponed until next meeting.

Hart announced that Justice Ed Godfrey of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court has accepted the position of the Hatch Chair. Faculty adopted the recommendation of the Appointments Committee that Emlen Hall be offered a faculty position.

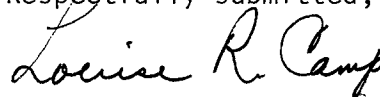

The new Student Honor Code, with changes was discussed. Bruce Cline was present for elucidation. It will be voted upon at the next meeting.

Dean thanked and congratulated Professor Simson for the fine performances of students in the Client Counseling Competition. The two students who will represent the Law School at Little Rock are Bruce Cline and Ella Frank.

Professor Ellis will conduct the colloquium next Monday at 4:00 in the faculty lounge. His topic will be the American Bar Association's standard for using mental incompetency as a criminal defense.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Louise R. Camp
