Dean Desiderio outlined the latest status of the UNM budget from a Dean's meeting he had just attended. As previously announced, there will be no cost-of-living or incremental pay raises during the upcoming fiscal year, but promotion pay increases will continue. While we have gone about as far as we can in attempting to hold down expenses, two areas do warrant continuing emphasis by the faculty and staff. Please use the WATS lines for long distance calls rather than regular commercial methods; and secondly, please attempt to hold down multicopy reproduction for instructional purposes by placing copies on library reserve whenever possible.

Dean Desiderio informed the faculty that his meetings with the NM Supreme Court concerning faculty practice rule also indicated that the Bar Examiners officially supported retaining the existing rule.

Dean Desiderio next informed the faculty about the current status of the Institute of Public Law and Service. Among the first orders of business should be the formation of an advisory group to serve as a screening committee for selecting a new director to replace Gary O'Dowd. Representation on the advisory group should include members of the faculty, court and bar. The Dean also stated that an interim director would be appointed.

Professor Hart moved that the faculty formally resolve to share their sincere sense of appreciation for the efforts of Gary O'Dowd while he was Director of the Institute and also while with the Governor's office. Motion seconded by Professor Flickinger. Approved unanimously.

Professor Minzner moved the minutes reflect admission to the NM Bar of Professor Flickinger. Seconded by several others. Approved unanimously.

Dean Desiderio announced that an Instituto would be held this Summer from 6 June through 1 July. He called for volunteers to teach.

Dean Desiderio announced the intention to convoke an alternate year faculty legal retreat 9-10 Sep this year. Professor Stelzner suggested the retreat be held here in Albuquerque, with potential savings in retreat costs being applied toward a trip to the AALS Convention next year in San Francisco. Dean Desiderio recommended the subject be held in abeyance until the next or future faculty meetings.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 5 PM.

Respectfully submitted:

E. K. FUGE, Faculty Secretary
