Minutes of the April 2, 1984 meeting were accepted as written.

Dean Desiderio reminded the faculty that Judge Dorothy W. Nelson, Ninth Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals would be presenting the 1984 John Field Simms Memorial Lecture in the Forum at 8:30 PM, Thursday, April 19. A reception for Judge Nelson will follow at Dean Desiderio's home. There will also be a luncheon for the visitor in the Faculty Lounge at noon the following day.

Dean Desiderio reminded the faculty that semester final exams begin on Monday, April 30th. Student evaluations of all courses are encouraged. Evaluation forms may be obtained from Ed Fuge, and should be returned to him for storage until final exam grades are turned-in, at which time they may be reviewed by the instructor. Also, final exams should be turned-in to Janet Cox for typing at least five (5) working days before the first scheduled date for the exam to be given.

Dean Desiderio made the following announcements:

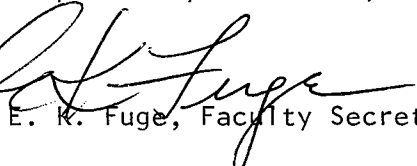

1. The UNM Provost has approved promotion of Professor Hermann to Full Professor, and Professor Karl Johnson to Associate Professor.
2. Professor Graham Hughes of the NYU Law faculty has accepted the Hatch Chair appointment for Semester II, 1985-86.
3. Instructors from among our faculty are needed to teach in the Summer 'Instituto' program, which will be held during the month of June.

The Final Report of the Curriculum Committee (memo, 13 April 1984, distributed to all faculty members) was approved by faculty vote, without objection.

Upon recommendation of the Financial Aid Committee, the faculty voted to adopt a motion that CLEO students at UNM not be automatically awarded need-based tuition waivers, but to follow our existing guidelines requiring submission of a GAPSFAS financial form to qualify. Students presently enrolled, and next year's first year students, would continue under existing procedures. Students being admitted in the future would be advised of this condition as part of the application and admission process.

The meeting adjourned at 5:15 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

E. K. Fuge, Faculty Secretary
