Dean Hart welcomed everyone back for the new academic year and introduced visiting professors Godfrey, Goetzl and Klein.

Dean Hart made the following announcements or reminders:

The UNM Faculty/Staff Club, located on main campus across the street from the north side of Scholes Hall, is opening this year under a new manager with revised operating hours and is seeking additional membership from both faculty and staff.

The New Mexico state bar convention is scheduled for 12-14 September 1985 here in Albuquerque.

The faculty retreat is scheduled for Friday, 6 Sep through Sunday, 8 Sep in Taos. Initial activities will begin at 2PM, Friday afternoon. Meals included are Friday dinner; Saturday breakfast, lunch and dinner; Sunday breakfast and lunch. There will be meetings on Friday afternoon (starting at 2 PM), Saturday morning, and Sunday morning.

Faculty committee assignments will be made early next week. Personal preferences should be made known to Dean Hart by Friday, 30 August.

The faculty rejected 2d Year student Beth Alona Kaimowitz's written and in-person petition to be placed in Professor Scales' section of Constitutional Law based on the student's desire to have a female faculty member for the course.

Professor Kovnat, Chair of the Faculty New Dean Search Committee made a brief report on the status of the search. She asked the faculty to put forth names of any of their professional colleagues they might feel interested and qualified.

The next faculty meeting is scheduled for September 16, with regular meetings to be held every three weeks thereafter. A separate memo on the dates will be published this week.

The meeting adjourned at 4:45 PM.

E.V. Fuge, Faculty Secretary
