With this new information about prospective permanent positions and vacancies, the Dean reconvened the faculty in accordance with the wishes stated at the February 23 meeting.

Upon proper motion and second, the faculty voted to offer permanent positions to presently Visiting Professors Kelly and Sanders.

The faculty unanimously declared their appreciation for the outstanding efforts of Professor Gonzales and the Faculty Appointments Committee in this year's recruitment process.

Professor MacPherson, Chair of the Law Library Committee, reminded those present that search and appointment committees need feedback from the Deans and faculty to determine that enough is being done in the area of minority recruitment for faculty and library director positions.

The meeting adjourned at 5 PM.
